a spirit of kindness, but in great carnestness, we ask you to come up promptly. Examine the date on the little tag opposite your name. It denotes that you owe from that date until the present time, or as far in the future as you care to pay.
Thus, "John Smith 12 Oct 95." All back years are

$1.25 a year, while if paid in advance or during the year, it is $1 a year. So you will see that $3.50 will set Mr.

It's Your Opportunity.

The early days of July will prove thrifty days to you here. We've many super-ior values—in regular lines—in broken lots—odds and ends from the busy senson, and as is our usual custom, we son, and as is our usual custom, we clear them quickly. We do not hesi-tate to name the prices that will do it. If the volume of trade we're after in July, and the between-senson buyer gets the benefit of the low sweep to the

We Divide With You.

It's even better than that, in the items that follow. You get the lion's share of the profits, for in our desire to push of the profits, for m our desire to push their sale, we lose sight of possible mar-gins. If you're quite particular as to values—if you wish your money to go a long distance, it will pay you to come to our store for every July need.

There's never any "between-season's" lagging of interest at onr store. Your buying needs go on each day and each week, and we're always ready for you with foremost values.

Tiding it Over.

It's the summer days that you wish to tide over in a comfortable manner, and you'll want your clothing to be the right sort. If it fits you right, it proves a wonderful aid to summer enjoyments. The rightly-fitting kind—the rightly-priced kind, too, is the Edward Rose & Ca., Chicago, make. You get every good point in this funous tailoring that lest dressers desire.
